Soothing Blend

The British Tea Company's ginger tea is an afternoon pick-me-up and herbal tonic all in one. The Chinese black tea produces a clear, medium brew that is accented by the spicy bite of Asian ginger. The ginger, in addition to adding taste, is also renowned in Asian medicine for its stomach-calming properties.

Gift on the Go

Filled with a selection of premium teas, flavored chai mixes, and an assortment of teacakes, the Tea and Cookies collection from Gourmet Gift Baskets makes easy work of afternoon tea for the recipient—and of shopping for the giver!

Cultivated Pastime

Designed to be educational as well as entertaining, Cheryl Dunbar's Teago makes a game of learning the lingo of tea. The names of popular blends, teaware, and traditional teatime foods are all represented in the bingo-style board game.
